Demurrer in the Bridge Injunction Case.

Case, Bryant & Case, attorneys for the defendants in the injunction proceedings brought by Henry L. Goodwin against the town of East Hartford and Charles Merriman, treasurer, to restrain the town from paying $5,000 for legal services in the transfer of the old bridge from the five towns to the state, Monday filed with the clerk of the superior court in Hartford a demurrer to the complaint. The grounds of the demurrer are as follows:

"The defendants demur to said complaint for want of parties in this; because no persons other than the town of East Hartford and its treasurer, Charles Merriman, are made parties defendant to this action, and the persons holding and owning and beneficially interested in said orders are not made parties to this action, and the plaintiff is demanding the extraordinary relief of injunction from a court of equity without affording any person or persons beneficially interested an opportunity to be heard in court touching the truth or materiality of the allegations of his complaint. And the defendants further demur, because upon the facts alleged the plaintiff is not entitled to the relief demanded."

in all such cases is indispensable, the greatest amount of nourishment in the least bulk. The act of digestion is in itself heating. Hence the benefit of obtaining nourishment with the least effort.
